

A Bistro and a Micro-bakery

Redefining Modern Seasonal Dining

Tucked away in a bustling part of York, Black Wheat Club is a place where seasonality, craft, and community come together

Whether you're stopping by for a morning pastry and a coffee, a long lunch, or a glass of wine in the evening, it's a concept designed for those who value good food and honest sourcing – without the pretence.

Founded by Marta and Tomek, whose passion for quality and innovation is evident in every detail, Black Wheat Club brings a fresh perspective to modern bistro dining. The menu evolves with the seasons, ensuring that every dish is a reflection of the best available produce.

The atmosphere is effortlessly welcoming, striking the balance between casual and refined. The open kitchen creates a sense of connection between the team and guests, reinforcing the bistro's commitment to transparency and quality.

Black Wheat Club offers brunch dishes that reinvent the classics, pairing exciting ingredients in surprising yet harmonious ways. The morning menu is built around their signature house sourdough and soft brioche buns — both handmade using a natural leavening process and baked fresh each day. They source their flour from trusted mills like Yorkshire Organic Millers and Shipton Mill, staying rooted in quality and tradition.

In the evening, the menu shifts into bolder territory — playful flavours, unexpected pairings, and vibrant ingredients, all grounded in a comforting, home-cooked warmth. Drawing on their Slavic roots, Black Wheat Club blends old and new in a way that feels both fresh and familiar.

The wine list is approachable, thoughtfully chosen, and full of gems. Whether you're a seasoned sipper or just curious, there's something here for you. Maybe you'll find a new favourite, maybe you'll stick with what you love. Either way, you're in good hands, and their team is always happy to guide or simply pour and let you enjoy.

Black Wheat Club is a place to slow down and enjoy. Whether you're catching your breath midweek, celebrating something special, or simply chasing a really good bite, it's somewhere you can count on for good food, a relaxed atmosphere, and a genuine welcome.
